Sometimes we get running low on love Ain't got enough to push, ain't got enough to shove, to keep my head up Like I'm drowning in a pool of missing you

Seems like we see less of each other every day I'm coming your going the opposite way, when those feelings fade
I know just what to do

Drink it up, take it in, take you more places than you've ever been
Cause we can make more love every night

Sometimes we're so close you can't tell us apart I can feel every beat of your precious heart, oh but that's just a start Where I'm taking you baby

Drink it up, take it in, take you more places than you've
ever been

More love. Oh Baby I can't get enough More love. To keep it rollin' steady baby it's up to us

Drink it up, take it in, take you more places than you've

Drink it up, take it in, take you more places than you've
ever been
