I got sent home from school one day with a shiner on my eye
Fighting was against the rules and it didnt matter why When Dad got home I told that story just like Id rehearsed
Then stood there on those trembling knees and waited for the worst

And he said, Let me tell you a secret, about a fathers love
A secret that my daddy said was just between us
He said daddies dont just love their children every now and then
It's a love without end, amen, its a love without end,
amen

When I became a father in the spring of 81
There was no doubt that stubborn boy was just like my fathers son
And when I thought my patience had been tested to the end
I took my daddys secret and I passed it on to him

And I said, Let me tell you a secret, about a fathers
love
A secret that my daddy said was just between us
I said daddies dont just love their children every now
and then
It's a love without end, amen, its a love without end,
amen

Last night I dreamed Id died and stood outside those pearly gates
When suddenly I realized there must be some mistake If they know half the stuff I done theyll never let me in Then somewhere from the other side I heard these words again

And they said, Let me tell you a secret, about a fathers
love
A secret that my daddy said was just between us
You see daddies dont just love their children every now

and then

It's a love without end, amen, its a love without end,
amen
