I don't get along With people who aren't kind I don't get along With folks with only money on their minds

And I don't get along with someone Who's always trying to tell me what to do But on and on I get along with you

Well I don't like People always tellin' me that I should change They get simple lives and they think they've got my life to rearrange

But they don't understand Exactly what love boils down to Cause on and on I get along with you

Well all it takes to please me Is waking in the morning feeling you by my side And all I ever needed Is knowin' that I'm needed in your life

I may not do
All the things that other people want me to
But on and on
I'll get along with you.

Yeah on and on I'll get along with you.
