(Hank Cochran - Wayne Kemp - Mack Vivkery)

She left me almost burned out
I couldn't feel a thing
A walkin' talkin' statue
Afraid to love again
She did everything to kill a flame
But a little spark got through
If she'd a got her way I'd be gone today
If it hadn't been for you.

You turned cold gray ashes into hot burnin' flames
I'm alive with love because of you
When you came to light the fire you knew just what to bring
You turned cold gray ashes into hot burnin' flames.

--- Instrumental ---

She thought she had me down and out
But at the count of nine
A livin' lovin' angel showed up just in time
She thought that I would surely die
Sometimes I wanted to
She had no doubt the fire was out
But she didn't count on you.

You turned cold gray ashes into hot burnin' flames
I'm alive with love because of you
When you came to light the fire you knew just what to
bring
You turned cold gray ashes into hot burnin' flames.

You turned cold gray ashes into hot burnin' flames
I'm alive with love because of you
When you came to light the fire you knew just what to
bring
You turned cold gray ashes into hot burnin' flames.

You turned cold gray ashes into hot burnin' flames...
