(Blake Mevis - David Wills)

Lately you've been showin' all the signs
Of a woman with someone else on her mind.
It's not your fault, it's the nights I've left you alone,
And if you're thinkin' you want a stranger,
There's one coming home.

Chorus:

If you're thinkin' you want a stranger, I'll soon be there.
You're gonna see a change in me, this time I swear.
No more late nights, comin' in at daylight,
And no more doin' you wrong.
If you're thinkin' you want a stranger,
There's one coming home.

Bought you a silk gown and perfume today.
Picked up some roses and champagne on the way.
Oh, I called to ask you to put some soft music on.
'Cause if you're thinkin' you want a stranger,
There's one coming home.

Chorus:

If you're thinkin' you want a stranger, I'll soon be there.
You're gonna see a change in me, this time I swear.
No more late nights, comin' in at daylight,
If you're thinkin' you want a stranger,
There's one coming home.

If you're thinkin' you want a stranger,
There's one coming home...
