As far as all my friends can tell I took her leavin' well That's kinda right
'Cause when I'm out with them
I don't let her memory rule the night for the most part I'm okay but I still miss her in a round about way

[chorus]
around about the time that midnight rolls around that's around about the time my tears start fallin' down cause she's not around I come unwound and my heart breaks Yeah, I still miss her in a round about way

I no longer sit alone for hours by the phone wishin she would call and just the other day I took her smilin' face down off my wall I've come a long long way

[chorus]
