I know that I surprised you comin home
Its not my usual time of year
But Ive got myself a problem
And I know that I might find the answer here
Remember when I was dads pride and joy
And your little man
Every time that I got hurt
You were there to give a hand
You'd pick me up and you'd kiss my hurt away
Remember what you'd say
Boy, you're gettin more like him each and everyday
Can we have a talk like it was yesterday
Your boys back in trouble and he needs you right away

She said she's gonna leave me momma
Nothing on gods green earth will make her stay
I can't live with out her momma
But this time you can't kiss the hurt away
But if Im so much like my dad
There mustve been times you felt her way
So tell me word for word what he said
That always made you stay

She said she's gonna leave me momma
But if Im so much like my dad
There mustve been times you felt her way
So tell me word for word what he said
That always made you stay

Is it already time
