Can't stand the pain
Can't stand the pain, anymore
Can't stand the pain
Can't stand the pain, anymore

Well, I'm lookin' for you baby and I don't know why
Everything about you makes me wanna cry
I can't lose, I can't win, livin' in the middle once again
Yeah, again and again

Can't stand the pain
Can't stand the pain, anymore
Can't stand the pain
Can't stand the pain, anymore

Well, I'm dreamin' 'bout you baby, each and every day
Try and wash my head out of the things you say
I can't lose, you can't win, livin' in the middle once again
Yeah, again and again

Well, I'm lookin' for you baby and I don't know why
Everything about you makes me wanna cry
I can't lose, I can't win, livin' in the middle once again

Can't stand the pain
Can't stand the pain, anymore
Can't stand the pain
Can't stand the pain, anymore

Can't stand the pain
Can't stand the pain, anymore
No more, yeah, yeah, yeah
