Wanna slap that stupid grin right off your face.
Now I slapped a Queen, from your sleeve you pulled an Ace.
And you cast your chips and you ran away.
Thought I try my luck way down in Mexico,
Throwing double sevens in an alley in Camargo.
Bought a cheap senorita with my last peso.

Shaken not stirred, Shaken not stirred,
Shaken not stirred, my heart still ain't chill.
Yeah!

Always took a chance on life, be it wrong or right.
Never had a lucky face, I lead a charmed life.
So take what's mine and leave the rest behind.

Yeah, shaken not stirred, shaken not stirred,
Shaken not stirred, my heart still ain't chill.
Yeah, shaken not stirred, shaken not stirred,
Shaken not stirred, my heart still ain't chill.
Yeah, shaken not stirred, shaken not stirred,
Shaken not stirred, yeah, shaken not stirred.
