Been jumping through hoops
Trying to make something happen
Looking for cheers
But all I hear is laughing
When I'm just trying to play this game
The only way that I know how
Getting stuck in the back
When you were made for the front
Is more frustrating than you would believe
But it fills my needs
Gas, Food, and Electricity

Now, I'm not complaining
I'm just saying I know where I wanna be
The money and fancy cars
Don't make us who we are
No, They don't define me
I just wanna do what I do

Chorus
This is automatic
I wanna take the wheel and drive
I feel it so deep I don't want the back seat anymore
This is automatic
I wanna take the wheel and drive
I'm taking over pull over
Cause now it's my time to shine

Y'all, let me tell you life is crazy
When you be out on that road
And you ain't never got nothing to show for it
Cause it's always someone else
Walking off with everything
I know they work hard, but so do I
And I want my piece of the pie
And I'm taking it
You couldn't stop me if you tried
I just wanna live my life
For me and only me
I know it might sound like it, but

B Section

Automatic (con't)

Chorus

Bridge

My wheels are spinning
Won't you put me on the road
I'm moving forward
And I'll never slow
This is my only chance
My opportunity
Won't you let be me?

Chorus
