It looks like heaven to see you walk,
To see the way you're moving on
Sounds like an angel, when you talk
The words come out like in a song.
Never thought what love could do inside
You're the place where I can hide.

It feels like heaven, to be with you
When you treat me like you do

Every minute of the day just with you I wanna stay,
there will be no end..

We've got an everlasting love
So pure, divine
We've got an everlasting love
Our love will last for all time

Could draw a picture just by heart
Know every line on your face
You stopped me doing from the start
All the things I used to chase
Every minute of the day just with you
I wanna stay
There will be no end...
We've got an everlasting love
So pure, divine
We've got an everlasting love
Our love will last for all time.
Should you ever, should you ever
Have any doubt about you and me
Please don't ever, no love never Don't hesitate to tell me how it should be
We've got an everlasting love
So pure divine
We've got an everlasting love
Our love will last for all time
We've got an everlasting love
So pure divine
We've got an everlasting love
Our love will last for all time
(An everlasting love

An everlasting love...)
