I recall when we first met, a long time ago
How could I forget the way I felt
When I first laid eyes on you

I remember saying to my friends
There is my future wife and then
I took the step to need
Someone who would change my life

It had to be my destiny
(Ooh my)
'Cause I was made to love you
My hands, to touch you
My arms, to hold you

My legs, to stand
My time, to spend with you forever
I was made, made to love you
My lips, to kiss you
My eyes, to see you

My legs, to stand
My time, to spend with you forever
My life, together I was made
Made to love you
(Made to love)

I remember our first date
Our first argument
Our very first breakup
And makeup that got us to this moment

And every girlfriend and every one night stand
Every heartbreak and every heartache led me to you
It brought me to and made me better

Better, sooner for you
It had to be my destiny

It had to be my destiny
(Ooh my)
'Cause I was made to love you

My hands, to touch you
My arms, to hold you

My legs, to stand
My time, to spend with you forever
I was made, made to love you
My lips, to kiss you
My eyes, to see you

My legs, to stand
My time, to spend with you forever
My life, together I was made
Made to love you
(Made to love)

It had to be my destiny
(Ooh my)
'Cause I was made to love you
My hands, to touch you
My arms, to hold you

My legs, to stand
My time, to spend with you forever
I was made, made to love you
My lips, to kiss you
My eyes, to see you

My legs, to stand
My time, to spend with you forever
My life, together I was made
Made to love you
(Made to love)
