Have you been a good little boy?
Have you been a good little girl?

Once upon a Christmas song
Everybody sing along
You see the joy on every face
And the world is seen a happier place
This song's brought us together (together)
Good time memories forever (forever)
Now I know what they mean
And what they've given to me
I'd have never believed

They leave me singing them,
Over and over, and over again,
Every December they get in our heads,
Turn em' up, play em loud,
Christmas should be the same
Singing them over and over and over and over again.

They say they're good for the soul (Good for the soul)
But someone tell me I don't know Why no one seems to write them no more (Write them no more)
So the only way to settle the score
Is to all make way for a new one (new one)
That keeps the heart of the old one (old one)
Make a little bit of festive cheer
And you'll know when Christmas is near
When this record appears, once a year

You'll be singing them over and over, and over again
Every December you'll hear it and say
Turn it up, play it loud
Every Christmas should be the same
Singing it over and over, and over and over again

It's getting in your head (It's getting in your head)
It's getting in your head (It's getting in your head)
And if your not singing it all night

You'd be telling a lie

La (repeat)

You'll be singing this over and over, and over again

Every December you'll hear it and say

Turn it up, play it loud

Every Christmas should be the same

Singing it over and over, forever and ever again

-----

Over and over, and over again

(repeat)
