What can I say?
There's an empty place
where your love
filled my life
and I know that a part of you will always be a part of me.

One summer night
and the sky is full of wishes that won't arrive.

How can I be in a world without your eyes to look at me?

No more Boleros,
no more nights to dance
the dance of love,
only lonely hearts,
no more Boleros.

:::

I hear the song
and your arms always make me feel so warm.

Now you're gone, I'll be dancing on alone.

No more Boleros,
no more nights to dance
the dance of love,
only lonely hearts,
no more Boleros.
