Who told you love is the Alpha and Omega
And that your heart will lead you to the only one?
It is a curse, it's the hammer that will break ya
It's a poison hidden in a bon-bon

Don't you know love is stronger than Jesus?
Don't you know love can kill anyone?
Bring it on, wars and diseases
You know that love can do you like a shotgun

Can't resist them, the sailors and the soldiers
Taking aim, a rabbit on a rifle range
Pay no mind to what your mama told ya
You're the fool who's chasing down the candy cane

It's a riddle how lovers can stay alive
That we bloom and breed and multiply

Don't you know love is stronger than Jesus?
Don't you know love can kill anyone?
So bring it on, wars and diseases
You know that love can do you like a shotgun
Oh, oh no, oh, oh no

See the people heading for disaster
Standing in line, just looking for a little fun
Love is a fire, a hot, hot blaster
And we're the Belgians burning in the Congo sun

We're believers trusting strangers
Any monkey looking like a savior
It's a riddle how, we're still living now
Oh, how little we know, oh

Don't you know love is stronger than Jesus?
Don't you know love can kill anyone?
So bring it on, wars and diseases
You know that love can do you like a shotgun

Don't you know love is stronger than Jesus?
Don't you know love can kill anyone?
Bring it on, wars and diseases

You know love can do you like a shotgun
Oh, oh no, oh, oh no
