I make a wish every morning
I say a prayer that you're right here with me
Being alone is so boring
But it takes one to know one
I think I know you

I guess I'm just asking
Do wishes come true?

Cos' now I found my heart I can feel for you
Now I found my wings - I can fly
Now I found my heaven falling from the sky
Just like the music
True love never dies

I'm kinda shy but revealing
So lets do spins and roll around in my bed

But I can't help this stupid feeling
I just want to know you
I think you know me
Wished on a star so the angels could see

Cos' now I found my heart I can feel for you
Now I found my wings - I can fly
Now I found my heaven falling from the sky
Just like the music
True love never dies

Love never dies
No it don't, no it don't

I guess I just know now
When I look at you
Prayers do get answered
Wishes come true
(oh yes, they do)

Cos' now I found my heart I can feel for you
Now I found my wings - I can fly
Now I found my heaven falling from the sky

Just like the music
True love never dies

Just like the music
True love never dies
No it don't, oh no...
And it feels so real...
