Come home every evening when the sun's goin' down
Got to try and rest my weary head
Wake up in the morning when the sun's comin' up
I still remember every word she said.

And it's so bad thinking about it
Not a thing can make my nighttime bright
Yes it's so bad thinking about it
I can't sleep a wink at night.

Sittin' here thinkin' and a-wonderin' if
She's ever ever gonna see the light
And all the time I feel inside
It's never ever gonna work out right.

And it's so bad thinking about it
Not a thing can make my nighttime bright
Yes it's so bad thinking about it
I can't sleep a wink at night.

Come home every evening when the sun's goin' down
Got to try and rest my weary head
Wake up in the morning when the sun's comin' up
I still remember every word she said.

And it's so bad thinking about it
Not a thing can make my nighttime bright
Yes it's so bad thinking about it
I can't sleep a wink at night.
