Driftin' along with the wind
Telling yourself you can't win
It's over and now we begin
Oh yeah, we are on the way

Light shining down from the east
Bringing a love that won't cease
Yeah, now we are finally released
Oh yeah, we're on the way

I used to think that I was doin' all right
But now I know that I was just hanging on
I used to wake up in the dead of night
And see the road that I was traveling on

Only one woman, one man
Just doing the best that we can
There's so much we don't understand
Oh yeah, but we're on the way

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah

I used to think that I was doin' all right
But now I know that I was just hanging on
I used to wake up in the dead of night
And see the road that I was traveling on

Only one woman, one man
Just doing the best that we can
There's so much we don't understand
Oh yeah, but we're on the way

Light shining down from the east
Bringing a love that won't cease
Yeah, now we are finally released
Oh yeah, we're on the way

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
