Our dreams got scattered yesterday
My eyes white like the ocean
It never goes away and I said
Live how you live and lay how you please
The birds and the bees don't know bout diseases
Walking away

I give and receive every day
My head's caught in the water
Fall over and you pray and I said
Live how you live and say what you please
My motion your ocean's got nothing on me
Walking away

I dig dig dig dig dig my own grave
I think Wright said, "Where did you go?"
I dig dig dig dig dig my own grave
I think Wright said, "Where did you go?"

Nobody likes you, everyone hates you
You are a liar, you've cheated me too
Find some one else to repeat your stories
We've heard enough and we don't believe you
