Late night, a back door I crawl in
Come for my angel
I'll never sleep again
Quiver runs a vertical that
Causes a head change
Keeps me from breathing out

Out...

Stayed up til my eyes went blind
I'll never be tired of
Sailing in life with you
So I make my plan to
Love and adore you
And I'll never bore

You, You my one and only
You, whom without I'm lonely
You, My girlface love

Late night, I drive up to your house
Maybe my heart strains
But I feel ya beating now
So I knock on your door
Hoping you'll answer
And I'll never stand so tall

At all...

I practiced all the words I rehearsed
Knew every line but I see your eyes,
I'm lost
Then assume the words speak
Clear as the day is
And all I can say is

You, You my one and only
You, Whom without I'm lonely
You, My girlface love
