"Ninety Five"

Can I take a moment of your time
To plead my case for my supposed crime
Where were you that questionable night
Ninety five dad a dum dum dum

Can I take a minute in your head
Abliterate the foolish things I've said
And we will be together once again
No regrets dad a dum dum dum

I can see how we swang across that tree
With our heart upon our sleeves
It's just a silhouette to me, just a dream, just a dream

95 I arrive at your house upon the hill
With my thought in a box to tell you how I feel
See to believe but believe that I can see
Only me dad a dum dum dum

And I can see how we swang across that tree
With our heart upon our sleeves
It's just a silhouette to me, just a dream, just a dream
