When I'm cold and lonely, I know
I should close the door, but only I can't fight
When I see you standing there
My heart is never quite prepared, but it's alright

If I had the chance to make you
If I had the chance to break you
I know I could never get it right
For us, right for us

Everyday a little less a little more
I try my best, but I won't lie
When I see you standing there,
The breeze is blowing threw your hair
And I can't fight

If I had the chance to take you
If I had the chance to make you
I know I could never break you down
For love down enough

Everyday a little time I spend alone
I'm on my own but it's alright
'Cause when I see your naked eyes I know that I should be surprised but it's alright

If I had the chance to take you
I know I could never let you
Fold it up or let it take you out

And I fell enough
And I fell out enough
