"A Century Of Love"

The rain has touched my steps
The rain touched my smile
I'm going to it's depth
It takes me to the sky

All the stars are falling down and now
I can reach the rainbow
Hold my hand and come with me
To my other way of being

This is all I need:
Be my "everything"!
And remember
Our dreams together...

This is all I mean:
Be my "everything"!

And live forever
Ever, ever!

All I need
Is to find a little place to live
In your heart
That's what I want
And to find the words to say
To find the words I've never said
The words I need to touch your world
And your life
To breathe your soul

A century is now
Not enough
For my love!
