"The Good Fight"

I'm like boiling water
You better get of my way
You see I was born a fighter
Gonna fight the good fight for the rest of my days

Cruising down the boulevard
The one that has no end

Ooem, my head keeps rolling
Like a summer breeze

Only some of us sleep at night
And only some of us dream

I right here,
Cuz u see I'm not all there

Some many wanna, wanna be right
So I guess I just don't care
So I keep my faith in the moonlight
But I got no place to stay
Cuz I barley paid my rent last month

Cuz she loves me any way
