"A Girl Like You"

I never met a girl like you before
You always wait for me behind the door
And I am sure that you will kill my pain
'Cause in your arms it's warm and never rains
I never dreamt to let you slip away
'Cause without you there is no night or day
And in your endless fields there are no walls
To stop me or to tell me that I'm wrong
So come to me with tunes and melodies
And blur that day-to-day reality
The time never ends when I ride your wings
Somehow...
I never met a girl like you before
We climb all hills as if they weren't at all
For us it's just a glide from song to song
Believing in your love I'm getting strong
