Broken hearts seem not far away

Won't you meet me there

'Cause I passed by you this morning

But I can't pass you by

Thinking of you in my mind
Sunny day sunny day

On a lonely aging way
Broken hearts is a place where I

Meet my sanity

With a taste of a new beginning

And leaving worlds behind

Still you're always on my mind

Sunny day sunny day

On a lonely aging way
Sunny day sunny day

But my love is far away
