Yeah,
Ghetto

After a long think about life,
I can see that
The only thing promise...
Is death... FUCKED UP

I can see from a distance,
I don't wanna predict death
But how long have I got left?
Life's short it's a hot sec
And time flies so how long is a life time
That's why I think most of us live for today
Life's a bitch in a way
So what's death? my niggas respond next
You live you die it's not complex
But I believe in judgement day
Even I aint seen God come yet,
And I believe I'll be judge one day
Even if I aint clean thank God I'm blessed
G still living,
Even though someone wanna still kill him
G still winning
Summer time rolled up two wheels still spinning
Deep down I'm just another youth still sinning
