Chorus

They say that breaking up is just a part of life
I thought that maybe one day you could be my wife
Now I know I messed up more than once or twice
And I was wrong, dead wrong
But you just got up and walk right out of our dream
Everybody's got the right to disagree
And you know I made my name up in these streets
You know you're wrong, dead wrong

[B-tek]

If you wanna leave there's the door
I can't take this bullshit any more It's you who wanted to leave so what you mad at me for If you're going then go, f*ck the long talk
Look it was you who started raising your voice
Now we both up in here and we making up noise
But I guess that's what you wanted so here you go Now we both look like dicks but we're the stars f the show
You always mad saying I don't give you none of my time
When I'm at studio while I'm perfecting my rhymes
How the f*ck do you expect to dress so nice
When the dough comes from the shit I write
Like Whitney says it's okay but it's not all right.
That's why for you I stay awake at night
Now I need me a down chick by my side
And if it aint you then it aint rite
That's what I'm sayinâ€¦!

[Chorus]

They say that breaking up is just a part of life
I thought that maybe one day you could be my wife
Now I know I messed up more than once or twice
And I was wrong, dead wrong
But you just got up and walk right out of our dream
Everybody's got the right to disagree
And you know I made my name up in these streets

You know you're wrong, dead wrong

[Jt "H*U*P"]

Strange how we met beau

I saw you from a distance

Looked in those eyes mesmerized and I then knew

I had to get those digits act legit not pull a quickie

And from this day I must confess I'm blessed you're still with me

You done know, I done show, I'm mad in love silly

Kinda chick I see in the future with my last name

Whether we living slowly or we live in the fast lane

Together we a team and you listening to the captain

She my star player I Know our love is mintage call her vintage coz it gets better with time

Sometimes we argue you say some shit that hurts

But I put my pride aside coz I know that you're worth it

And that ring on your finger girl you know you deserve it

You and me both aint perfect

Remember that

Some say we wasn't meant yo, they lying.

They cans ay what they wanna but I'm defiant,

Chorus

They say that breaking up is just a part of life

I thought that maybe one day you could be my wife

Now I know I messed up more than once or twice

And I was wrong, dead wrong

But you just got up and walk right out of our dream

Everybody's got the right to disagree

And you know I made my name up in these streets

You know you're wrong, dead wrong
