This has gone on long enough
Some change is overdue
I drove up on Grizzly Peak and hung myself over this city
Let the blood flow down and cleanse these streets
Burn my body on a windy night
Set my ashes into the bay
Let them fill the gap between love, hate, silence and screams
Don't forget to sprinkle some in to the drink of the fuckers I hate
I've seen these kingdoms rise and fall
I've seen these faces change with the seasons
I am your laughing shadow
I've seen this one... one million times
Every night is Haloween
Your costume is wearing you out

So naked, so exposed Thats how I wanted this
I've seen these kingdoms rise and fall
I've seen these faces change with the seasons
I am your laughing shadow
I've seen this one... one million times
