"Stay The Night"

It's 4 o'clock in the morning
I can't take another second of this excuse for taste
Take a chance
Stay the night

Oh why don't we take a taxi back to mine
I'm sure that we'll find a way to pass the time
Take a chance
and stay the night

If it's a question of time
I'll wait
If there's a reason
I'll right it always
I gave you the night cause I know what I found
I think of you and my heart beats a little louder

I can't decide if you've given me a sign or maybe you are just like this all the time
Take a chance
and stay the night

Oh please don't tell me you're worried you might find when morning comes you'll regret you crossed that line
Take a chance,
and stay the night

If it's a question of time
I'll wait
If there's a reason
I'll right it always
I gave you the night cause I know what I found
I think of you and my heart beats a little louder

If it's a question of time
I'll wait
If there's a reason
I'll right it always
I gave you the night cause I know what I found
I think of you and my heart beats a little louder

My heart beats a little louder
I'll tell you my heart beats a little louder

Oh
Stay the night
Stay the night
Come on stay the night
