Don't make this so hard.
You know what it does to me.
Why can't you see it kills me?
Don't make me hate you.
But it just builds inside.
The times you lied.
Just say it.
This isn't over 'cause I still feel for you.
The things you do continue.
Instead of running, just throw it all away.
This mess you made, this mess you...
It's okay with me.
Just don't fail me now.
Maybe soon you will see until we're one we'll fall down.
I've got no use for what you say.
It doesn't matter anyway.
I've got no use for what you say.
It doesn't matter anyway.
Don't make this so hard.
You know what it does to me.
Why can't you see it kills me?
Don't make me hate you.
But it just builds inside.
The times you lied, the times you...
It's okay with me.
Just don't fail me now.
Maybe soon you will see until we're one we'll fall down.
I've got no use for what you say.
It doesn't matter anyway.
I've got no use for what you say.
It doesn't matter anyway.
I've got no use for what you say.
It doesn't matter anyway.
I've got no use for what you say.
It doesn't matter anyway.
I've got no use for what you say.
It doesn't matter anyway.
