You want me you need me
So why would you leave me
You turned something precious
Into something wrong
Your friends - they mislead you
The voices deceive you
Do you think that I won't move on

Fuck you
For all of your bullshit, all of your drama and your fuckin games
Fuck me
For ever believing that you could love anyone
Beyond yourself

So now that your listening and I've your attention
There's couple things I'd love to say
See, if I can't have you and if I can stab you
Then I beg you please go away

Fuck you
For all of your bullshit, all of your drama and your
fuckin games
Fuck me
For ever believing that you could love anyone
Beyond yourself

You run away from simple complications
And put your weight on me
You'd rather hide
Than face your obligations
How easy life must be
Don't make me sheltered
You're sheltered

You run away from simple complications
And put your weight on me
You'd rather hide
Than face your obligations
How easy life must be
When you're sheltered

Yes I'm sheltered

So now that your listening and I've your attention
There's couple things I'd love to say
See if I can't have you and if I can stab you
Then I bet you please go away

You run away from simple complications
And put your weight on me
You'd rather hide
Than face your obligations
How easy life must be
When you're sheltered
Yes you're sheltered

Bitch
Slut
Cunt
Whore
You bitch
You slut
You fuckin whore
You fuckin cunt
Fuck you
Die
