Almost every other day I wake up and I think I'm so happy my school days are done
And although many years have passed Oh, the memories they last
They will haunt me 'till I'm dead and gone

So here's to you all you high school kids
I'm so sorry for what you're going through
This one's for you
Some encouragement to remind you there's life after school

I was a fag, I was a geek, I was a loser and a freak
I tried my best just to be invisible
I was counting all my days
I was planning my escape
It's amazing that kids can be so cruel

So here's to you all you high school kids
I'm so sorry for what you're going through
This one's for you
Some encouragement to remind you there's life after

Well, the four years went by and I made it out alive
And I started to live my real life
Now I'm happy and I'm free and this whole world belongs to me
If you just hang on, I swear you'll be all right

So here's to you all you high school kids (So here's to you all you high school kids) I'm so sorry for what you're going through (I'm so sorry for what you're going through)
This one's for you (This one's for you)
Some encouragement to remind you there's life after
