Medicated, and that made it all right to be alive
The monster boy got killed by the pills that they gave him at the end of the line
It took twenty years to assemble this beast
And it all fell apart in two quick weeks
Underneath all the scars on his face and his mind
Was a brand new boy with stars in his eyes
And he exploded on the scene like a geek
And he fit right in with all the rest of the freaks
And he had a lot to learn about the world out there After spending so long in his gloomy lair
And he made up worlds in his mind
But he didn't need them now so he left them behind
And for the first time in a long time
He was glad to be breathing and his new face could smile
"Please don't take this skin away", he cried
"I'll pay any price I have to pay", he cried
"It's great to have this chance to fail", he said
"I never knew there was life for sale, you saved me, you made me again
Oh what an awful secret these scientists kept"
Now he's livin' and lovin' and makin' new friends
And he won't take for granted what everybody has
And in his chest he found a heart that had never ever ever been used
He dug it up and cleaned it off and found out it was as good as new
The spark had grown into a flame
And it burned anybody that got in it's way
And he took out a few bridges too, but everything burns bright when it's new
And once a monster and now he's a prince,
Or at least that's how he felt when he got his first kiss
And he learned how to walk and he changed the way he talked,
And he started catching up on everything that he missed
And he tried to be invisible for so long, now it was strange to be seen
And instead of all the villagers form in a mob
They threw down their swords and treated him like a king

"I never knew it could get this good", he cried

"You'd never believe how bad it was", he cried

"Please don't take this skin away", he said

"I never wanna go back where I came from, you saved me, you made me at last

All my dungeons and demons are left in my past"

Once he sat in his sadness as days slowly drag

Now he burns with excitement and time moves so fast

And there's a song that he will sing

When he needs to remember how things have changed

He sings, "It ain't so bad, it ain't so bad, it ain't so bad anymore

So don't you cry, so don't you cry, don't you cry anymore

No don't you cry, don't you cry, don't you cry anymore"
