It's not fair ya know
When you're the only one in tune.
It's not fair anymore
When you're not broken hearted too.
It's not fair anymore...
All the schemes that you dream about
Won't matter at all when you wake up alone.
And if she really haunts you now
Just pick up the phone.. but, you know you won't.

It's not fair ya know

When you're the only one in tune.
It's not fair anymore
When you're not broken hearted too.
It's not fair anymore...
