[Slug]

I'm not a player I throw up a lot - "I know"
The wicked walk amongst us and you don't know me that well
Proolly shouldn't trust the story I tell I'm gonna speak it how I saw it because I call you my friend
So take a drink from the gauntlet and sit down whence
Once upon a time before gas masks at school
Back when cash was the golden rule
There were two super heroes who tried to bring love to the earth
One was slug the other one was Murs

[Murs]

The team s and m not for sadomasochism
But trying to save the innocent from the master's prison
Airwaves disaster-ridden, we wear masks for a livin
And we make dope songs, the task we were given
We're to air out the main stream brain washed zombies
Who wanna smoke blunts and live with their mommies
Two mouths to feed no urge to succeed
Cause the music don't inspire him to go and take the lead
So...

[Slug]

Lets hit the streets
Catch bullets with our teeth
Get the kitten out the tree
Bring evil to its knees
Clean its mouth out with bleach and send it on its way
Bring the children a better day

[Murs]

So they can go out and play don't have to be players
Now the music is so cold that they listen to it with layers
So we try to warm em up, gamma-blast through the speakers
Cause we 'Leaders of the New', how about our 'Sound of Zeekers'?

And we drownin out the weaker, findin rhymes like heat-seekers

From the blast that's in the wrists, combattin evil
With some wax in our fist, on tracks we don't miss Uncanny classic hits, who's the team that can't be dissed?

[Chorus:Slug]

Its the two

Its the two

(You can not see it)

The two

(The keepers of the wisdom and power)

Its the two

(You can not see it)

[Murs]

Now day in day out

We fought continuous bouts

At every corner of the world where we heard evil shout

Hearts filled with courage bank accounts full of doubt

We gotta find a way to make it all balance out

[Slug]

Now even heroes gotta eat and put fuel in the tummy

So it started getting real when the two ran out of money

And if you saw them you wouldn't be able to tell

Did a fine job saving mankind from hell

[Murs]

Well we saved the world and brought joy to the masses

But couldn't save ourselves from the government and taxes

And the justice league so we had to pay dues

When we couldn't ante up the kicked us out the crew

Now in the hood there were a few who did appreciate the saga

But didn't have the ends to fund this armada

So now we were the two with no H2

And open to attack from every wack crew

[Slug]

And the fateful day came could it be

That two had been beat

Do they face defeat

Overcooked time to climb out of the book

Had a grasp let go lost grip when it got shook

The magic Cadillac eats a lot of gas

Rent and food the two had no cash

So they had to get jobs at a record store

And every thing went back to how it was before

[Chorus:Slug]

They were the two
(You can not see it)
We were the two
(The keepers of the wisdom and power)
Where are the two
(You can not see it)
Now its up to you

[Slug]

And the moral to our stupid little song is
It doesn't matter who's the smartest or the strongest Love ain't enough for anyone to see it through
So make all checks and money orders payable to who

The two
(You can not see it)
Its the two
(The keepers of the wisdom and power)
The two
(You can not see it)
Its the two
(The keepers of the wisdom and power)
(You can not see it, but it is there, believe us)
