Yeah, aiyo, it's 4 in the morning, I decide to turn over Pull down your little red drawers and start to kiss you all over
You hope it last forever, I know baby, I hope it last forever

So I took off my paisley pajamas I got from St. Thomas Yo, I love you so much, so let me pay you homage
And if you do, yo I promise never break a promise
So can I give you the honors my little Pocahontas?

Play by play, Miss Camay
You like a Zales Diamond in the window, right on display
You just a shining, precised in every curve you cut And for your daddy, yo, you never have to tuck in your gut

Because I love it like that, stretch mark fat Plus let me show my crunches to burn it off Just lay right on your back and let me do my love dance
I pop it to the left, I pop it to the right, I get it all night, come on

Them other chicks must hail to the queen as I Put them dudes straight up and check 'cause the queen is mine
Last forever, last forever

We can be broke, holes in our coat even still we shine
We got each other through the bad and the best of time
Last forever, last forever

Yo, yo, I'm lost in love, with nowhere to go
She says I'm a pain in the ass, boy, get to the store
She can say that 'cause we best friends, we play together
She carry my left rib, therefore we pray together

Bury me on top of her in our graves together
'Cause when she feel pain, I know how to make it better

Talks, some long walks, communication in parks Understand what she's going through, our listen was smarts

Especially when she's on her friend I be hoping it leave
I have to bite my tongue just to keep from arguing Six days of that is like who let the monster in After it's finished then I can get on top again

Shorty girl's my oxygen, never catch her gossiping Look it y'all, this my flower, she gon' keep on blossoming Long as she is mine and I am her, we gon' ride the
This lady here is all for me, I never have to lock her in

Them other chicks must hail to the queen as I Put them dudes straight up and check 'cause the
queen is mine
Last forever, last forever

We can be broke, holes in our coat even still we shine
We got each other through the bad and the best of
time
Last forever, last forever

Last forever, last forever
Last forever, last forever
Last forever, last forever
