Sweet as carrot cake, fakin plus you don't eat turkey

Verse Two: Cappadonna

Socializin, vibin with my eyes on dot

She this book cover lady that be blowin up the spot

While my heart was racin, like the hands on the clock

I step live I think she see me puttin out the pot

Peace Dot, I'm so happy to see you at the rendezvous

How's life today your hands are softer than Camay too your hairdo way more class than Halle Berry

Caught visions of me and you ridin on the ferry

Plus your daughter Kiki talk to my man Merry

I order me a Sex on the Beach with the cherry

I order her a Vermidi on ice, sounds nice

She elegant, pretty eyes, glasses, intelligent

Whispered in my ear that she's celibate

Whispered back to her ear we don't have to go there

As I grab the hand set her politely in the chair

As we stopped to stare at one another

Black sister, the brother

I'm thinkin all the time how she could be my lover

Chorus: Teddy Pendergrass

Just another helpless

Fool in love is what I am

Love was never born to say, goodbye

Love was never born to say, goodbye

Just another helpless

Fool in love is what I...

Verse Three: Ghostface Killah

What's happenin brown sugar? Say you look so good today

Ankle bracelet rapt around your leg

Here have a seat, complementary drinks is on me

Bartender Chevalier chateaux at table three

Luxurious rings, eyes sparkling

What's your name sugar? Juanita Cash Hawkins

Your complexion gives a reflection of sometime a black woman just need to be loved

Quiet and shy, baby girl my gift got you high

Made you wanna hit me with the keys to that file

Just jokin baby, I have a sharp sense of humor
Wish I woulda bumped into your frame a lot sooner What's your physical degree, thirty one, thirty three Half Hawaiian with a slight touch of Chinese Seen you workin at a law firm, on Fifth Avenue
Three blocks from the Gucci spot is where I trapped you
Yo, I'm all into older woman, who's happy livin Love kids and, keep all up and this in the crib and not afraid to doubt need a God on your side We holdin hands til death do us apart and then we slide
Earring in the left side of your nose love my combo Should have left wizard thousand times maybe tonight though
But you sexy mothafucka DAMN whats the recipe
You make a nigga wanna GOD DAMN
Can you cook darlin, at the stove you're revolv
Bake macaroni, turkey wings, a nigga starvin Here take my number let me pull the chair from under
I had fun plus your backyard speak with thunder
Chorus: Teddy Pendergrass
Love was never born to say, goodbye (5x)
Just another helpless fool in love is what I am (repeat to fade
