"Further And Further Away"

Pulled apart and driven to distraction
On the beaten path from me to you

Just coz I'm leaving, it don't make a difference
I call you at home on the day you start to listen
We won't turn it round again
Coz I'm only losing ground

Can you feel me touching you?
I'm further and further away
Can you feel me touching you?
I'm further and further away
Can you feel me touching you?
I'm further and further away

I took my chance on a physical attraction

I photographed you in the nude
But the girl in the picture is a pure work of fiction
The more that I stare
the less you seem to listen
We won't turn it round again
Coz I'm only losing ground

Can you feel me touching you?
I'm further and further away
Can you feel me touching you?
I'm further and further away
Can you feel me touching you?
I'm further and further away
Coz I'm only losing ground
