Did you miss it enough
to make up for both of us?
Did you take it apart
just to show me how it worked?
And if you're asking me to stay don't turn your back and walk away
And no breaking down on me
I know you want to see the world, do the things you've never done in your life

It's like musical chairs
You're still young you don't care
You'll be stopping the song when you start
getting on a bit in years

(We run around 'til the music stops)
How can I help you if you don't let me in?
(I can't tell if we're sane or not)
How can I help you if you don't let me in?
(Maybe this ain't the game for us)
How can I help you if you don't let me in to your life?

Will you stay sitting down

when the next song comes around?
Well it's still early days
so get up and act your age
And if you're asking me to stay don't turn your back and walk away
And no breaking down on me
I know you want to see the world, do the things you've
never done in your life

It's like musical chairs
You're still young you don't care
You'll be stopping the song when you start
getting on a bit in years

(We run around 'til the music stops)
How can I help you if you don't let me in?
(I can't tell if we're sane or not)
How can I help you if you don't let me in?

(Maybe this ain't the game for us)
How can I help you if you don't let me in to your life?
