My little sunshine sleeps beneath the oak
The forest denizens seem to smile
When I came near she awoke
She gazed at me with eyes of guile
We walked out to the grassy knoll
My heart runs and leaps like a deer
Compared to her the fairest are droll
Her singing in the breeze was all to hear singing,

I love money, money money money
Money money money, tons and tons of money
Money money money, money money money
I love money more than my little honey

My little sunshine sleeps beneath the oak
The forest denizens seem to smile
When I came near she awoke
She gazed at me with eyes of guile
We walked out to the grassy knoll
My heart runs and leaps like a deer
Compared to her the fairest are droll
Her singing in the breeze was all to hear singing,

I love money, money money money
Money money money, tons and tons of money
Money money money, money money money
I love money more than my little honey

Now after hearing those words from my cutie
I was wounded and I wanted to cry
She doesn't like me or my beauty
She started singing and drew nigh
She held my hand and whispered in my ear
You're the only one for me in my life
Now, how much money did you make this year?
Those words cut me like a butter knife. She said

I love money, money money money
Money money money, tons and tons of money
Money money money, money money money
I love money more than my little honey

Oh shigdy bop, (bop bop)
Oh shigdy bop, (bop bop)
Oh shigdy bop, (bop bop)
Oh shigdy bop, (bop bop)
Oh shigdy bop, (bop bop)
Oh shigdy bop, (bop bop)
Oh shigdy bop, (bop bop)
Oh shigdy bop, (bop bop)

I love money, money money money
Money money money, tons and tons of money
Money money money, money money money
I love money more than my little honey

Now I was taken by surprise
Looking at her trying to read her soul
The color of greed was in her eyes
She seemed to be under money's control
Now strolling away she looked back at me
I've seen that look before
Staring at her I came to see...hehehe...

I love money, money money money
Money money money, tons and tons of money
Money money money, money money money
I love money more than my little honey
Well I love money, money money money
Money money money, tons and tons of money
Money money money, money money money
I love money more than my little honey
La, la la la, la la la, la la la
La, la la la, la la la, la la M-O-N-E-Y
