Hey little babe, can I talk to you?
I can change your life, make it feel brand new Shape your body, to give you back your youth, ooh it's true
But there's just one thing, it's gonna cost you, yeah you
Chorus:
Same old story, same old song, just a fool and his money
Sugar parties don't last long, in chasin' that dream
Same old story, same old song, well it ain't very funny
Oh but still you're blind, while you're dreaming your life away
Hey little boy, are you lonely at all?
There's a million girls want you to call
They can cover all your wildest fantasies, oh with ease
But there's just one thing, it's gonna cost you, yeah you
Chorus - all in a day
(Instrumental break)
Hey big sucker, can I talk to you?
This is no big pitch, every warp is true
I can sell you everything you need, make you bleed
Think it over, it's gonna cost you, yeah you, oh you
Chorus - away
