Por donde dejaste marcado tu paso Ando buscando que tu me perdones
Y quisi se puede otra vez me hagas caso.

Quiero que sepas, que yo reconozco Que tuve la culpa perde tus amores Quiero tambien escuchar de tus labios Que si no hay carino que no hay ya rencorres yeah

Hoy debe heredar, hereda buscando
Al que la amorcito que supo quererme Lando, buscando con grandes urgencias Antes que en el dicio yo puedo a pederme

Refrain

horale, horale

Translation:

I Want You To Know the sad love

I want you to know that I travel the road of your footsteps where you have left your mark I am looking for your pardon
And I wanted you to respect me again if you can.

Refrain:

I want you to know that I am fully aware that it was my fault that I lost your love I also want to hear it from your lips that if there is no love left there are no grudges.

Today I must leave my possessions, to the heir I am looking for to the love that once knew me I am looking with great urgencies Before I will be lost in what you said.
