I, I know I'm just a man, one grain of sand
I know, I know that she's just a girl, just one in the world
But I swear when I held her tonight, we touched the sky, oh oh
I could not hold back the tears from my eyes, oh

Love welcome home, I've been so alone
Dying inside 'cos I'm so lost without you Love welcome home, this heart of mine nearly turned to stone
Nearly turned to stone

Now I live right here indoor, oh, night by night Oh girl what you've done changes everything, what's right is right
When I'm lying next to you, I can see so perfectly, oh, oh
It took so long but now you're here with me, oh

Love welcome home, I've been so alone
Dying inside 'cos I'm so lost without you Love welcome home, this heart of mine nearly turned
to stone
Ohh, nearly turned to stone

They say love is a miracle, oh baby
They must be right 'cos I can see a miracle inside
Oh inside your eyes tonight

Love welcome home, I've been so alone
Dying inside 'cos I'm so lost without you Love welcome home, this heart of mine nearly turned to stone, oh
Oh, love welcome home, this heart of mine nearly turned to stone, oh
