You are such a big cat
And a big cat can leave
Such a deep scratch
I'm a small cat, a black cat
A side cat

Lost my glasses, lost my thirst
Lost my heart
Lost everything I had but you
But you, but you
And off your armors and your tooth

Meowch, let me out

All my friends are imaginary
Not in the sense that they're not real
But in the sense they care for me

Meowch, let me out
Meowch, let me out
Meowch, let me out
Meowch, let me out

Do what you do
Just don't make it too high
Do what you do
Don't make it too high
Do what you do
Don't make it too high
Do what you do
Don't make it too high
Too high, too high

Meowch, meowch
Meowch, meowch
Meowch, meowch
Meowch, meowch
Meowch, meowch
Meowch
