Words from the wise, encourage you, carries all your taking on,

Words from the wise, discourage too many people when things go wrong.

Words from the wise, encourage you, carries all your taking on,

Words from the wise, discourage too many people when things go wrong.

I have my doubts, as everyone. Little isle in a stormy sea.

Words from the wise, believe in you, All I do is believe in me.

If the going looks too strong, And a little seems too long

Only darkness in the night, Turn the darkness into

Light the fire inside of yourself

I'm the one it's nobody else

Listen out. But remember always

Your the wise, The wise.

When it feels so hard to try, Just a weight, a chain, a lie,

Even though you need to fight, make the changes into

Light the fire inside of yourself

I'm the one it's nobody else

Listen out. But remember always

Your the wise, The wise
