"Stars & Hearts"

Pasts mean nothing in the present just,
(dreams never) given a chance to be sent.
I know one day, the perfect girl will be right here. (Mine has arrived)
Came in my life and she's changed it for the better and...

Looking in her eyes I feel like looking at stars in dark blue skies.

I've been on this world for only what? (17 Years)
And it's never been so much better than this.
Think that you fell from the stars. (Did it hurt?)
I would catch you. You are holding my heart.

Looking in her eyes I feel like looking at stars in dark
blue skies.

You don't know me.
I want to be with you forever and then...
