So ya ready to learn?

Baby I'm here to teach you

Things you've only done in your dreams

Boy you have only touched

The tip of the iceberg

I'll meet you at the other extreme

In a different world,

I'm a different girl

You'll see me in a darker light

More than meets the eye

Come along for the ride

Hold on tight 'cause I just might

CHORUS:

Shock your mama

Shock Shock your mama baby

Shock your mama

Shock Shock your mama baby

Shock your mama

Shock Shock your mama baby

Shock your mama tonight

You picked me up at eight,

For dinner at nine

Baby where did that hour go?!?

Your mother thinks I'm cool

And everything's fine

Boy the things that she doesn't know

While she's servin dinner I'll be servin' time

Counting minutes 'til we're alone

I've got another menu and I'll show you when you

Give me the time, we'll spill the wine

We're gonna

If anyone thinks we're movin' too fast

Tell the whole world the can kiss my..

(Oh My!)

I'm not talkin' about your mama

But I'm hopin' that if you wanna

We could go on a trip

Would it be hip, baby!?!
We could go to the stars
Venus and Mars
Maybe we could find another kind of love
That's different than ours
Lovin' that knows no boundaries, I found a reason
Love that has no limits
Or no gimmicks or no jealousy within it
Mama don't allow the kind of things that I've been saying'
The games that I've been playin'
The hearts that I've been swaying in my direction
It's heading straight into your heart
And my suggestion is that you better do your part
And don't worry if you shock your mama
(And your Daddy too!)
Shock it 'til ya drop
I'm gonna shock shock
Shock it baby don't ever stop
Though I'm all good news in my Sunday shoes
I'm gonna wear you out on Saturday night
So know your fact from your fable, look before you label
'Cause I cook a different meal
On someone else's table that will...
Later..... much
