TAKEN BY YOU

VERSE I

You can do no wrong

Baby all you have to do is be yourself from [?]

It's here in the sun

Can't you hear [?]

My heart's going out to yours

I feel you in my arms

I touch your lips in my mind

And in my dreams we're always together

CHORUS

I'm so taken, taken by you

Oh baby touch me

I'm shaken through and through

And I'll never rest easy

Til your heart is all mine

They say that love is blind

Baby forget all you've heard

I'm not fakin', I'm so taken

so taken by you

VERSE II

I'm all heart and soul

I lose all my strength to you

And all the words I heard about my fallin' too

Do not [replan], my friend

I can't help feeling all emotions

'Cause right now my life depends on how you feel

So please say you love me

CHORUS

So taken by you
