If you're bouncin' off the walls and you're jumping off your bed
And you wanna scream the music out that's pumpin in your head
I Can't Hear You! I Can't Hear You!
And if you're killing time in the back of the line
And you wanna scream the music out that's pumpin' in your mind
I Can't Hear You! I Can't Hear You!

listen to the wisdom that the stereo sing got you stickin' to the rhythm like static cling bring the bombast to confront the globe and it's broadcast to your frontal lobe flows hit your veins like a medicine dose bass hits your chest like heavyweight blows adrenaline rush from your head to your toes feel like everything's possible, anything goes we come to set it off hype like amphetamine helpin' you let it off after you let us in speakers are blowin' up, spotlights are blowin' out stages are shatterin', still we be shoutin'...

CHORUS

The track is back. It sticks inside your head Tell your dad, tell you mom, tell it to your friends Cause these be the voices boomin out your box On your floor in your room it's got your head in locks

It's hot, shots spread like California fires Rhymes will be recalled like Firestone tires
They inspire like the bombs on soundtracks Cause this is how you'll see your life when you look back

So react let me hear you scream like michael and janet Coast to coast, worldwide all over this planet Cause a panic when you shout it out cause it's your favorite song
Open up your mouth and everyone will sing along
